PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS.

Gloucestershire is an area of over 1,000 square miles, on both sides of the Thames, and nearly in part of the Severn. The river Thames forms the boundary between the County of Gloucester and the County of Worcestershire. The county is divided into several districts, each with its own character and attractions.

INDUSTRIAL MAP OF GLOUCESTERSHIRE,
SHOWING THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE PRINCIPAL INDUSTRIES OF THE COUNTY, MINERAL DEPOSITS, FOREST RESERVES.

EXPLANATION.
- Railways
- rivers
- canals
- roads
- towns
- industrial areas

Industrial Gloucestershire 1904
© Coaley.net