<sup>5</sup> Wotton Hamlet includes (1861—1901) Wotton Hill, formerly extra-parochial, which was added to it under the Act 20 Vic. c. 19.

<sup>6</sup> Old Sodbury.—The increase of population in 1901 is mainly due to the presence of a large number of workmen engaged in constructing a railway tunnel.

<sup>7</sup> Wickwar.—The increase of population in 1841 is ascribed to the employment of labourers on the railway
